

DRAFT ANSWERS OF UNTERMYER NOT FOR VOTERS

Secretary Baker Declines to Make Them Public "for Political Uses."

CAN'T EVEN BE COPIED.

"Document of Confidential Character," Is Official Ruling in Case of Candidate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Secretary Baker has ruled that the draft questionnaire of Irwin Untermyer may not be given out for political uses under existing conditions. He said no questionnaire would be made public, even on written request of the person who made it. But he declined to rule at present on the question whether Mr. Untermyer would be allowed to copy his questionnaire for his personal use, which he could have come to Washington and demanded to do if he had desired to make its contents public.

Late yesterday two men called at the office of Adj. Gen. Harris and one of them presented a written communication from Mr. Untermyer requesting that they be permitted to copy his answers to the draft questionnaire for purposes of publication.

Gen. Harris, acting upon the instructions of Secretary of War Baker, declined to give the men access to Mr. Untermyer's questionnaire, on the ground that the information sought is confidential and should not be divulged for purposes of publication.

At 3 o'clock Secretary Baker had advised a group of newspaper men that he had seen no request from Mr. Untermyer that his draft questionnaire be made public and had received no person who said he represented Mr. Untermyer. Mr. Baker authorized this statement:

"This survey of the man power of the Nation (as represented by the collection of questionnaires now the property of the War Department) was made for a purely military purpose. Men were asked to come in and disclose their intimate family relationships and to make a complete disclosure of their talents and of their tastes in order that the Government might assort them most usefully from a military point of view.

"The questionnaire was confidential in character, and the War Department ought to keep that confidence, so that if we ever undertake to make a similar survey in the future the men who are asked the questions will know that they are not going to be embarrassed in an unexpected or disguised use of the record of any relationship which they had with the Government from a military point of view. The fact that a man is a candidate for public office does not, in my opinion, alter the situation at all. I do not think the opponents of the men who have filed questionnaires ought to be able to tease them into a situation where they will ask the War Department to relax its confidential attitude in this matter.

"The only use, as I understand it, which can be made of these records other than the uses of the War Department, is as evidence in the prosecution of a man who has made false answers to any of the questions contained in the questionnaire."

Secretary Baker, in reply to questions, said he had no interest in Mr. Untermyer, whom he does not know, but has a "very great interest in the vast number of other men who were brought under the draft."

Asked why he would not reveal the identity of the individual who presented Mr. Untermyer's request, Gen. Harris replied he thought he better not do so. He could not see that the question of identity was important.

"They called at my office and did not see the papers," he said.

Gen. Harris added he understood that these men had called upon two or three other persons before they came to him, but did not think they saw Secretary Baker.

SAYS BAKER HELD UP THE QUESTIONNAIRE

Refused to Make It Public, Despite Request, Asserts Unter-myer's Manager.

George Gordon Battle, Chairman of the Irwin Untermyer Campaign Committee, last night issued the following statement:

"Mr. Irwin Untermyer, through his representatives, to-day made every effort possible to procure the publication of his questionnaire.

"Pursuant to his direction, Frederick H. Bugher, former Police Commissioner of New York City, accompanied by Theodore L. Hermann, a partner of Mr. Untermyer, presented a written authorization and request, signed by Mr. Untermyer, for the delivery and inspection and publication of his questionnaire.

"They presented Mr. Untermyer's authorization and request to the assistant chief clerk, Mr. Rose, of the Selective Service Bureau of Records at the Washington Barracks, Washington, D. C. By him they were referred to the chief clerk, Mr. Rosary, who, in turn, referred them to Col. Wheeler, By Col. Wheeler they were referred to the Adjutant General of the Army

Give the world the once over

LISTEN, fellows, to some straight talk. Many a man when he gets to be 40, misses something. He may have lots of money and a fine family, but—

He never "got out and saw things". After he gets settled down, it's too late.

Every man wants to see the world. No man likes to stand still all his life. The best time to TRAVEL is when you're young and lively—right NOW!

Right NOW your Uncle Sam is calling. "Shove off!" He wants men for his Navy. He's inviting you! It's the biggest chance you will ever get to give the world the once over!

The Navy goes all over the world—sails the Seven Seas—squints at the six continents—that's its business. You stand to see more odd sights, wonderful scenery and strange people than you ever dreamed of.

You'll work hard while you work. You'll play hard while you play. You'll earn and learn. You'll get, in addition to "shore-leave", a 30-day straight vacation—which is more than the average bank president can count on.

You can join for two years. When you get through you'll be physically and mentally "tuned up" for the rest of your life. You'll be ready through and through for SUCCESS.

There's a Recruiting Station right near you. If you don't know where it is, your Postmaster will be glad to tell you.

Shove off! Join the U. S. Navy

Gen. Harris, at the office of the War Department, who presented the authorization and request to Secretary of War Baker for the purpose of securing his authority to publish its contents.

"The Secretary refused to comply with Mr. Untermyer's request and made the following endorsement thereon:

"Draft records are a part of a confidential relation between the Government and men called to the military service. Their use for other purposes is not permitted. This record will therefore not be shown."

"In two comprehensive statements already made by Mr. Untermyer and in a letter from George L. Carr of his local board, the contents of Mr. Untermyer's questionnaire were made public in refutation of an unauthenticated rumor circulated by Mr. Bainbridge Colby, manager of the Republican Campaign Committee, for obvious political purposes."

CHILDREN KILLED BY AUTOS.

Boy in Manhattan and Girl in Rockville Centre Are Run Down.

Harry Schacht, twelve, of No. 249 East 110th Street was instantly killed last night while crossing Third Avenue, near 110th Street, when he was struck by an automobile driven by Helmer Johnson of No. 1690 Broadway.

Witnesses told the police the accident was unavoidable. The automobile is owned by Olaf Kiser of No. 117 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn.

Elizabeth Helm, five, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Helm, died at Rockville Centre, L. I., yesterday from a fracture of the skull suffered when she was struck by an automobile said to have been driven by Mrs. Emma R. Landau of No. 28 Nassau Avenue, Maspeth. She was with her brother John, ten, near her home.

Little's Building Strike Settled.
LITTLE, Nov. 4.—The building trades strike, which has been in progress here, has been settled, the employers agreeing to pay higher rates provisionally for the months of November and December. This will mean an additional expenditure by the employers for the two months of $3,000,000 francs.

"LITTLE MOTHER" HONORED.

Tablet to Her Unveiled in Synagogue.

At the B'nai B'rith Synagogue, Attorney and Stanton Streets, there was unveiled yesterday morning a tablet dedicated to the memory of the "Little Mother of the East Side." Beside Krohnberg, who died a few weeks ago from illness resulting from her war work.

Julian Goldman, President of the People's Hospital, of which Miss Krohnberg was Executive Vice President, made the memorial address. He announced that $5,000 had been collected from people on the east side to continue Miss Krohnberg's charitable work.

Duofold Health Underwear for Men, Women and Children

Health

To prevent sickness is cheaper and easier than curing it.

Wool is Nature's best body covering—the best protection against cold and damp.

In DUOFOLD, the wool is all in a thin layer on the outside of the garment, where it can't possibly touch or irritate the skin.

Only the thin layer of soft, smooth cotton touches the skin.

Wear Duofold—your doctor will approve. Sold by many good stores.
